FM station - Channel 292A

PUBLIC NOTICE

On June 28, 1988, the Federal Communications Commission released a Hearing Designation Order that set for hearing the following competing applicants for a new FM station on Channel 292A in Miramar Beach, Florida: Howard B. Dolgoff, and Mark and Renee Carter.

The hearing will be held at the offices of the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D.C., and is currently scheduled to commence at 10:00 a.m. on October 26, 1993, on the following issues:

1. To determine whether there is a reasonable possibility that the tower height and location proposed by Dolgoff would constitute a hazard to air navigation.
2. To determine which of the proposal would, on a comparative basis, best serve the public interest.
3. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the specified issue, which of the applications should be granted, if any.

A copy of the application of Mark and Renee Carter, and related materials, are available for public inspection weekdays, during regular business hours at Newman-Daily Resort Properties at 5050 Highway 98 East in Miramar Beach, Florida 32541.
